LIVING ON THE EDGE: An Edge Novel BY SHANNON K. BUTCHER

Before she was known for writing edgy paranormal romances, bestselling author Shannon K. Butcher wowed readers with her sexy romantic suspense novels. LIVING ON THE EDGE (Signet Eclipse Mass Market Original; March 1, 2011, $7.99) marks Butcher’s return to suspense and is the first book in a hot new series featuring members of the Edge, a group of mercenaries.

In LIVING ON THE EDGE, a life-altering injury has left soldier Lucas Ramsay feeling washed-up and useless. So when the general who saved his life needs a favor, he knows he must repay the debt. All Lucas has to do is prevent the general’s daughter, Sloane Gideon, from boarding a plane to Columbia. Only Sloane has no intention of being stopped.

Sloane is a member of the Edge mercenary group, and more than a match for Lucas. Her newest mission is off-books; she has to save her best friend, Gina, from a vicious drug lord. Sloane reluctantly accepts Lucas's help in tracking and rescuing Gina, but she doesn't expect to care about him or that at the end of the mission she no longer wants the two of them to go their separate ways.

Fresh Fiction called Butcher's novel No Control "a gripping and emotional roller coaster ride of suspense and intrigue!" Her new series about the tough warriors of the Edge will thrill readers of JoAnn Ross, Cindy Gerard, and Suzanne Brockman. Butcher's talent for writing gritty, fast-paced suspense and her knack for creating memorable characters will keep readers hooked until the last page.
