RAZOR’S EDGE:

An Edge Novel

BY SHANNON K. BUTCHER

Shannon K. Butcher thrilled readers with her return to romantic suspense in Living on the Edge (March 2011), the first in her Edge series. In RAZOR’S EDGE (Signet Eclipse Mass Market Original; November 1, 2011, $7.99), Butcher dives back into her dark and exciting world of mercenaries and intrigue.

In RAZOR’S EDGE, Roxanne “Razor” Haught was one of the Edge’s best operatives, but when she botches an assignment it’s clear that her mind isn’t on her dangerous job. Her ex-boyfriend is stalking her and she loses concentration at a critical moment and fails at her mission. So when she’s assigned to train one of the Edge’s newest recruits instead of being sent out into the field, Razor is sure it’s meant as a punishment.

Tanner O’Connell isn’t just an ordinary recruit though—he’s a former badass special ops guy who brings a lot of experience to the Edge—and he’s also supposed to babysit Razor until her ex is no longer a threat. The last thing they want is to be partnered together, but the sparks they ignite between each other may be too hot to ignore.

Readers of JoAnn Ross, Cindy Gerard, and Suzanne Brockman are sure to enjoy Butcher's riveting tale. Her talent for writing gritty, edge-of-your-seat suspense and knack for creating memorable characters will keep readers hooked until the last page.
